“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. The pain and grief at such times can be overwhelming to contend with; so may your family and dear friends comfort one another. Additional comfort and hope can also be derived through the pages of God's Word, the Bible. For example, Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). For death is not only an enemy to mankind, but it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why he promises to one day get rid of forever all pain, suffering, and death (Revelation 21:3-5). All who desire to do God's will will enjoy life forever as God meant it to be right here on a beautiful paradise earth (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29; Genesis 1:28). What a glorious day that will be! So, I encourage you to look up these scriptures in your own Bible when you feel up to it (Psalm 1:1-3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. If you wish my wife and I would deem it a privilege and be more than happy to talk with you further with the purpose of encouraging and comforting you with God's Word.
