mother. She was truly an angel and I will remember the good times she and daddy had at Corsica Hills a few years back. They had many laughs and daddy would always kid her. May God be with you “ Lorraine, James and Clara, I have fond memories of visiting you all when we were younger. I remember the parties and gatherings that Ms. Mary and Mr. James would have and wonderful times with used to have in the kitchen or on the porch, out of the way of the grown folks. Please hold on to those great memories and they will carry you through. Remember to be absent in the body is to present with the Lord. Ms. Mary is alright.

“ Lorraine, we are so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. May you find comfort in knowing that God the father is loving, kind, and just. He knew she served Him well and it was Her time to come on home to get her rest. Remember weeping may come in the night, but JOY, oh JOY cometh in the morning.
May she rest in peace.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death(John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
