“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"

“ We can't know why some things happen...but we can know that love and beautiful memories outlast the pain of grief. And we can know that there's a place inside the heart where love lives always...and where nothing beautiful can ever be forgotten. Those we cherish will always live on in memory.\r\n\r\nWith Deepest Sympathy\r\nRuth A. Jones

“ Polly, Cee Cee , Angie, Teresa and the rest of the gang, I am so sorry for your loss. I will miss Mary Jolley telling me something silly and making me laugh. I had a chance to take care of her for a while and I treated her just like she was my mom with love and care. I will indeed miss her being her. Family just know that I love you and if you need me I am here for you. Again I am very sorry for your loss.
