“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ *To the family of the Late Mrs. Mary Smith:
No one can replace your mom, but God can comfort your heart. He knows what you need during this time much better than anyone else. Prayers and fond memories are what you have to remember your dearly departed. May the love of family and friends comfort you during these difficult days. No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. However, take comfort in knowing that she is now resting in the arms of our Lord. Remember that a person who departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in your hearts and minds, through you, they live on. You will realize that you are blessed to have been able to share in her life before she went to rest in eternal salvation.
Our deepest condolences to you and your family.*
