“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Please accept my deepest sympathy. The loss of Mary Arlene, brings back memories of my sister who passed away recently. Her favorite song was Rough Side of The Mountain, also. They both were the same age. I look forward to the time when the dead will be resurrected. ( Acts 24:15 ) Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief, and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. Take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be resurrected or raised up back to life in conditions free from sickness and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4). These are few of many comforting scriptures. For more information on how to cope with the loss of your loved one, please visit www.jw.org.
