

Mary Taylor

July 15, 2016

MILLSBORO - At 12:47 a.m., the love of my life and wife for over 45 years, Mary Pamela (Farson) Taylor, passed away from a brain disease at the Delaware Hospice short term facility. Pam was admitted on the 29th of June 2016 with 2 to 3 days left to be with us, but if you know Pam you are not going to tell her what to do.

So Pam, just to prove them wrong, stayed with us another two weeks. Pam showed them that she would go when she was ready, not them! Pam had family members precede her in death, her father, Harry A. Farson; her mother, Majorie (Noble) Farson; her brother, Harry A. Farson III; her son-in-law, Jefferey W. Bell; and her grandson, Jacob W. Bell. Pam is also survived by her brother, Richard Farson; her sister, Laura Riggens; her daughter, Jaime Taylor Bell; her granddaughter, Jenna Mae Bell; and me, Joseph E. Taylor. Per her request, there will not be a service and the interment of her ashes will be at the Sussex County Veterans Cemetery.

Pam served her country 18 years as a spouse of a military soldier. It was easy for me, the service told me what to wear, where to go, what to eat and sometimes who to kill, but Pam, had to take care of the house, bills .cars, Jaime and her schools, plus Pam worked. I had it easy compared to her. At the VA cemetery Pam will be with other spouses waiting for me to join her.

Please keep Jaime and Jenna in your thoughts and prayers.

THANK YOU, JOE

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope of being reunited with our loved ones again during the resurrection of the dead. Acts 24:15 tells us that " there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous", Please look forward to that time. Until then may your entire family be strengthened and blessed.

“ I'm not exactly sure what to say here, so I'll just leave some memories about a woman who was like a mother to me, whether I wanted it or not. (I never got to thank her, unfortunately.) Jaime and I have been friends for so long, I can hardly remember what life was like before you all came along. Mom will always be Pam in the Payroll DePartment to me...extra capitol P's. I will always be able to hear her voice, in that disapproving tone when I do something wrong. Please take comfort in knowing that she is with God and her much missed family members. I can't begin to express how sorry I am that she is no longer here. Know that we are praying and sending our love your way.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.
