

Mary B White

June 26, 1940 - April 22, 2016

Mary B. White was born on June 26, 1940 in Manning, South Carolina to the late Harry and Kate Butler. She passed with peace and grace on April 22, 2016 at Peninsula General Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland. She was divorced from James R. Brown Sr. and the widow of James W. White.

Mary was educated in the Manning Training School, and she was a Gifted Seamstress, who has made and altered many bridal gowns, dresses and men's suits. She was a loving and devoted mother, who supported her children in all of their school and sports activities, and a proud and supportive grandmother of over a dozen grandchildren, and a growing number of great-grandchildren.

Mary was one of thirteen children, and she enjoyed spending time with her family, traveling, shopping, sewing, and making sure that everyone ate and had a place to call "home".

Mary gave her life to Christ under the direction of Rev. Gertrude Brown, United Methodist Church, San Domingo, Maryland.

She was preceded in death by one son, Russell M. Brown, two brothers, Samuel Butler, Harry Butler Jr. and three sisters Victoria Band, Elizabeth Anderson and Janice Clark. She is survived by three sons; Michael A. Butler

(Jackie), Eric J. Brown, Sr. (Vanessa), and James R. Brown Jr. (Terri); one step-son, Larry Watts (Shelley); two daughters, Natasha L. Sudler (James), and Tangia D. Dickerson (Sylvester); eight sisters, identical twin Martha Gattis, Jannie B. Tull, Katie Walker, Evelyn Hoskey, Geneva McCray, Bobbie Butler, Betty Butler; and Joann White; special friend, William E. Outlaw; a host of grand and great- grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace (2 Cor. 1:3,4) while many fond memories of Ms. Mary warm your hearts.
