The Obituary

Mary Louise Wilson, affectionately known as Louise, was the daughter of the late William Dale, Sr. and Cordelia Farlow Dale. Born on December 25, 1925 in Salisbury, Maryland, she departed her earthly tabernacle on May 1, 2025 at her home surrounded by loved ones.

Louise was educated in the Wicomico County School System. In 1946, she married the late Clayton Wilson. From that union was born six precious children: Tommy Dale, Mary Frances Wilson Meekins, Clayton Dale, Jr., Joseph Riley Wilson, Betty Anne Wilson Waters, and David Allen Wilson.

Louise had a very quiet, humble, and forgiving spirit. No matter what wrong was ever done to her, she was quick to forgive. And the love that she had for her family was evident in everything that she did and conveyed.

Those left to cherish loving memories are: one daughter, Betty Ann Wilson Waters; one brother, William Dale, Jr.; one sister-in-law, Rosetta Dale; four grandchildren, Timothy Wilson, Eric Elzey, Edwin Wilson, and Fonnnette Gale and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by: one daughter, Mary Frances Wilson Meekins; one son, Tommy Dale; two sons-in-law, Joe Meekins and Arthur Waters; one grandson, Keith Wilson, and one granddaughter, Chiquita Wilson.

“ My grandma was the best grandma in the world. I have so many memories of her. I can't even count on my 10 fingers or 10 toes. I remember when I was little and she used to grow tomatoes in her window and me being a fat kid. I always wanted to eat her tomatoes. She will fuss about it, but she will always give me one. She grew them tomatoes for the longest time and I really do believe she was growing them for me because she know how much I love them Grandma you will definitely be missed and I'm so happy that I was your granddaughter. I'm not mad that you're gone you were 99 years old. You don't owe the world nothing in the world don't owe you nothing I'm just happy that when you went in peace to be with the Lord, you knew that she was loved kisses to the sky.
