She also was a gifted seamstress who loved to make her own clothes and a love for crochet & doing puzzles. She was a member at St. Stephens AME church in Unionville serving as an usher and stewardess.

The earthly departure of this servant of God leaves fond memories with her daughter Emily Ayres of Snow Hill, MD two grandchildren Diane (Lawrence) Bailey of Fruitland, MD Norman Ayres Jr. of Salisbury, MD 3 Great-Grandchildren Taja Hudson, Kevin Ayres, Shane Morgan one sister Dorothy Thompson of Baltimore, MD two brothers Thomas Young, Arthur Young of Easton, MD and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Ms. Young was preceded in death by a beloved companion John Miller and a son-n-law Norman Ayres Sr., four sisters and three brothers.

God saw the road was getting rough the hills were hard to climb; he gently closed her loving eyes and whispered, Peace Be Thine. The weary hours the days of pain, the weary nites are passed. The ever worn out patient frame has found sweet rest at last. Our family chain is broken, a link we fail to see but God in all his mercy will still our comfort be.
