“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ Grief can be hard, may your family find strength in God promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible describes death as an enemy and that it surely is not just for us, but also for Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that has plagued mankind for centuries (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). This is a sure hope that should bring us great joy since we know that God cannot lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11). So, may you draw comfort from God's promise as to what lies ahead just as Jesus did when he suffered an agonizing death. The Bible says he endured because of the "joy that was set before him" (Hebrews 12:4). May we do the same. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
