

Mattie J. Robinson

February 20, 1964 - March 24, 2016

Mattie Jane Williams Robinson “Mattie Boo” was born on Thursday, February 20, 1964, in Seaford, Delaware to the late Juanita Camper and Frederick Hughes. Mattie departed this life on Thursday, March 24, 2016, at Christiana Hospital in Newark, Delaware.

Mattie graduated from Laurel High School, Laurel, Delaware, class of 1982. She attempted to pursue her career to become a nurse. She already thought she was a doctor because she would work on anyone that would let her, including animals. She loved to give, and would give her all to help anyone that was in need, whether it was food, clothes or just helping out.

Mattie gave her life to Christ under the direction of Apostle Bishop Anthony Flowers in Laurel, Delaware.

In May of 2004, Mattie was joined in holy matrimony with George X, and relocated to Delaware City, Delaware. She stayed at home taking care of her grandchildren that she loved very much, and took great pleasure in. Mattie specialties were making you laugh and putting a smile on your face no matter who you were.

Mattie was preceded in death by her son, Edouard Williams; mother, Juanita Camper; father, Frederick (Tobar) Nelson Hughes; and brother, Alphonso

Williams.

She leaves to cherish her memories, husband, George X of Delaware City, Delaware; daughter, Ivy Williams of Delaware City; son, Pierre Yopp of Ellendale, Delaware; godson, Frederick Murray II; four grandchildren: Za'Kya Guy, Za'Nya Guy, Sa'Riyah Williams & Sy'meer Sanchez; brothers: Timothy (Angie) Williams of Laurel, Delaware, Buford (Sharon) Williams of Sanford, Florida, Frederick (Maricon) Gardner of Fort, Washington Maryland & Tony Johnson of Sharptown, Maryland; sister, Debbie (Roy) Horsey of Laurel, Delaware, as well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
