

Maurice Lamont Dorman

September 2, 1973 - September 3, 2023

Maurice L. Dorman was born on September 2, 1973 to Benjamin Fields and Linda Dorman. He left this earthly world on September 3, 2023.

Maurice Dorman was raised and educated in Salisbury, Maryland all his life. From an early age, he loved to play football, go fishing and playing outdoors with his friends.

He graduated from Wicomico High School in 1992. His love for football made him a great player at Salvation Army in Salisbury.

Maurice pursued his career at Concrete Building Systems as a concrete finisher. His work on concrete making was one of the best in his job. In his later years, he came to enjoy more of his cooking skills and trying new recipes at home for the family to enjoy. Family and friends used to call him Master Chef and his specialty in BBQ Ribs and Curry Goat, was the bomb. Maurice was loved by everyone. "Maverick," as many knew him, will be always loved forever and missed, but never forgotten.

He is survived by: his stepfather, Paul Deal and mother, Linda Deal; his sister, Lynnette Bell; his fiancé, Leticia Correa; his four children, Jordan (Oliva) Dorman, Jayden McCready, Anyiah McCready and Brianna Gillespie; stepson, Yarrel Correa; grandson, Carter Gillespie and daughter-in-law, Olivia Dorman.

He is also survived by a great niece, three great nephews and a host of cousins and friends.
