“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Though I know that this is a difficult time for you, my hope is that you will be comforted from God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21: 3,4 gives hope of a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning. Under Jesus' kingdom rule we have this and much more to look forward to. Please accept my deepest condolences.

“ To the family my sincere condolences to all of you. I can't imagine. She and I met about a year and a half ago. We only became closer it will be exactly 1 year when I lost my father. She sent me a message everyday to make me smile and lift my spirits and a big hug every time I would go into the store. She helped me through my dark days. She will always be remembered in my heart. God Bless you all

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sad to say the pain of death is something all of us experience. Isn't it true that at such times we realize even more so how precious and yet fragile life can surely be. My wife and I pray that we can bring you some degree of comfort and hope during this difficult time. What has helped us to cope are the wonderful promises the Bible gives us about all those who have died. These are not our words but the words that come from God's Word, the Bible. Jesus promised, for example, that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why, along with raising the dead to life, he also promises that he is going to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that has plagued mankind for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29)! What a glorious day that will be. Almighty God, who cannot lie (Titus 1:2) is going to make that promise a reality. All that he wants from us is simply to do His Will and not our own (1 John 2:17; Proverbs 3:5, 6). The Bible helps us to be able to do just that (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). The results we receive give us the strength and faith to face challenges in life, like the death of a loved one, with a degree of comfort and a sure hope of what God has in store for those who do his will. Please, when you feel up to it, look up all these scriptures and give serious thought as to what God is telling us about his loving concern for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. No words can take away the hurt and pain one feels when someone you love dies. The bible can give us hope for the future. At Revelation 21:4, it tells us that death, tears, mourning and pain will be removed in the near future. Also, in John 5:28&29 it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Please look forward to that time, and until then, may your entire family be comforted and blessed.
