

Melvin Orlando Collins Jr.

November 1, 1993 - October 24, 2020

Melvin Orlando Collins, Jr., was born on November 1, 1993. He passed away suddenly, on October 24, 2020. He was affectionately known to his family and friends as “Luv”.

Melvin received his early education at Marion T. Academy Charter School, in Wilmington, Delaware. He graduated from Pencader Charter High School, with an astounding 4.0 grade point average. He received many awards and recognitions for his academic accomplishments. Melvin was employed as a supervisor with Allied Security for the past six years.

Luv had a devoted passion for his family and his partnership in “All Love No Hate” apparel. In his free time, Luv enjoyed sports and leisure time with his friends and family. Luv was known for his selfless acts of giving, helping others and providing a listening ear.

Luv’s greatest accomplishment was being a devoted father to his six-month-old son, Ca’Sai Mario Collins. In addition, Luv was a cherished brother, loving caring uncle and beloved son.

Melvin was preceded in death by his paternal grandmother, Alice Collins; maternal grandfather, Samuel White and beloved daughter, Malia Camille Collins.

Melvin leaves to cherish his memory, his son, Ca'Sai Mario Collins; parents, Melvin Collins, Sr. and Sheila White; stepfather, Sean Kelly; paternal grandfather, Melvin Lee Collins; maternal grandmother, Louise Hackett; brothers, Eubanks, Tramel, Kadeem (Taraisha), Malik, Lamin and Kareem; spiritual sisters, Ashley (S.K), Ta'Leaha and Dorie; special cousins, Ronnisha, Tanisha and Timothy "Boop"; childhood friends, Donta "Duce", Thomas "Chucky" and Heem; special friend, Cabria Gatling; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family, friends and AB.
