Melvin Charles Gordy Obituary

Melvin Charles Gordy was born on November 2, 1955 in Salisbury, Maryland. He departed this life on Sunday, January 11, 2026 at age 70. Uncle Melvin enjoyed playing basketball, going to the slots, horseracing, and riding his bicycle to Princess Anne. Many of the people from the Marion and Crisfield area said of Melvin was considered an 'inspiration,' because he was content with what he had and he was happy. The people who encountered him riding his bicycle said he was independent, proud, strong, and resilient. Melvin was also known for the helmet he wore when he rode his three-wheel bike and how he would wave at people as they rode by him. People who saw him on a daily basis said, "413 will never be the same without the Bicycle Man."

Melvin was preceded in death by his mother, Edith Holland and his brothers, John and William Gordy. He leaves one brother Alphonso Holland, two nieces, two nephews, great nieces and nephews, and a host of cousins.
