

Melvin L. Hopkins Sr.

August 23, 1931 - April 18, 2021

Melvin L. Hopkins, Sr., was born on August 23, 1931, to Noah Lee Hopkins, Sr. and Anna Mae Burton Hopkins, in Millsboro, Delaware. Melvin was lovingly known as "Bubbles".

Bubbles' education started with many schools in Millsboro; Johns School, Friendship, Warwick and Millsboro Betts Pond. He was awarded a GED from James H. Groves High School on May 27, 1981.

Melvin worked as a carpenter, most of his life, for DFD, and Braxton Jackson. He was also employed by Parker Block, Inc., as a truck driver. His hobbies were making Christmas wreaths and crosses. Melvin served in the U.S. Army, spending most of his time in Alaska, before being honorably discharged. His favorite food was anything his wife cooked, and he made that known when he married her.

Melvin was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers, Preston, Linford, William and Noah; three sisters, Viola Drummond, Minnie Bibbins and Elva Wise; and one son, Melvin L. Hopkins, Jr.

Melvin leaves his wife, Frances A. Hopkins; one son, Anthony L. Hopkins, Sr.; stepchildren, Coley Harmon (Elisa), Barbara Wright, Henry Harmon (Jean), Tyrone Harmon (Cynthia) and Brenda Hampton; and a host of nieces, nephews and grandchildren, to cherish his memories.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family