

Melvin Warner Jr.

March 6, 1955 - January 31, 2014

Melvin “Sammy” Warner, Jr. was born March 6, 1955 to Melvin Warner, Sr. and Gloria Murray. He was a resident of Centreville, MD and was an employee of Carrion Home Improvement for over 20 years.

Sammy was a wonderful husband. He and his wife, Ella, lived out the greatest of love stories. He was a great father, not only to his sons, but to many. He imparted much instruction and wisdom to those who wanted it and even to those who did not.

Sammy was a gentle giant. He walked humbly but in authority. His very presence commanded respect, yet he was full of compassion and gentleness. He always put others first from a helping hand to a listening ear. He’d give you his last with a happy heart and a smile on his face. He was a hard worker, diligent in every task he took on. Honesty and integrity were his middle name. His impact on all who met him was profound. To know him, even for a moment, was to love him.

Sammy was preceded in death by his father, Melvin Warner, Sr. and also his wife, Ella Warner of 30 years.

He leaves to cherish his memories: two sons, Dwight Hall (Audrey) of Goldsboro, MD and Mervin Hall (Debbie) of Henderson, MD; his mother, Gloria Parker of Denton, MD; one brother, Michael Warner of Denton, MD; five sisters, Theresa Finney (Curtis) of Dover, DE, Angela Warner of Cordova, MD, Rita Wilson (Dwight) of Laurel, DE, Geraldine Lyles (Lamont) of Denton, MD and Sheila Alexander (Spencer) of Camden, DE; two special sisters-in-law,

Molly Hall (Mike) and Mary Freeman (Cornell); four special brothers-in-law, Larry Stewart, Will Hall (Charlotte), Gilbert Hall and Robert Hall; six grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death(John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
