

Mercedes I. Bordley

September 17, 1940 - April 1, 2016

Mercedes Ina Bordley was born on September 17, 1940 in Chestertown, Maryland. She transitioned from this earth realm to her heavenly home on April 1, 2016. Mercedes who was fondly known as Mercy was the daughter of the late Isabella Stewart and Cliff Turner. She was a devoted wife to her husband, Charles Bordley. Mercy delighted in caring for his every need up until the morning the Lord called her from labor to rest. She always said, "Peas took care of me and I am going to take care of him."

Mercy graduated from Henry Highland Garnett High School and Bowie State College. Mercy was a member of the Sarah E. Travers Chapter #50 Order of Eastern Star.

She loved people and opened her doors to many. There was always room for one more at her table. Mercy was raised in Bethel A.M. E. Church and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age.

Mercy was employed by the Head Start Program, Campbell Soup Corporation, and the Maryland State Health Department, where she retired in 1990.

Mercy leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Charles Bordley; two sons, Marcus Freeman and Charles Freeman; a step-daughter, Joanne (Mike); a step-son, Dwayne Black (Terry); eight grandchildren, Keisha Henry, Latoya Freeman, Charles Freeman, Jr., Ronald Freeman, Rodney Freeman, Monica Freeman, Toi Wright and Montrel Fisher; and a host of great-grandchildren along with numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and a sea of friends.

Mercy will be sorely missed, but we know the Lord's plan is perfect as we take comfort in knowing she is resting in his loving arms.
