

Mervin Samuel Schoolfield Sr.

July 24, 1943 - March 17, 2021

Mervin Samuel Schoolfield was born July 24, 1943 to the late William David Schoolfield and Lorraine Mathews Schoolfield in Salisbury, Maryland. He departed this life on March 17, 2021 at Tidal Health Peninsula Regional Center after a short illness.

He graduated from Salisbury High School in 1961 in Salisbury, Maryland. Mervin joined the United States Army and later worked for the United States Postal Service, retiring after thirty-eight (38) years of service in 2004.

Mervin was a member of the New Hope Baptist Church in Salisbury, Maryland. He was also a member of VFW Post #10159, American Legion Post #145, Queen City Lodge Post #1051 and the Salisbury High School Association.

Mervin had a love for music, especially anything by Tremaine Hawkins. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He loved crossword puzzles, gatherings with family and friends, watching old westerns and enjoying reruns of Perry Mason.

Cherished memories of Mervin's life will be remembered by: his wife, Teresa, whom he married on September 24, 2011; his sons, Mervin S. Schoolfield, Jr. of Alexandria, Virginia and Mark (Anniechel) Schoolfield of Newark, Delaware; his daughters, Sheila Schoolfield Jones of Salisbury, Maryland, Shawn (Jerome) Jackson of Cambridge, Maryland, Shaleeta Wright of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania and Nina Hall of Salisbury, Maryland; a granddaughter whom he raised, Keenesha (Doug) King of Salisbury, Maryland; two stepchildren, Kimberly and Quinnie McBride, both of Salisbury, Maryland; several other grandchildren and great grandchildren; one sister, Helen Groomes of Delanco, New Jersey; one brother, William Schoolfield of Pocomoke City, Maryland; several nieces, nephews and cousins; closest friends, Robert Gale, Cleveland Johnson and Calvin Mitchell and a host of church and community family and friends.

Preceding him in death were two brothers, Earl and David Schoolfield and a sister, Jeanette Gaskins.

LOVINGLY SUBMITTED, THE FAMILY
