“ Uncle Mike, I guess I'm still in denial. Im still waiting to wake up from this terrible dream. I am so honored and truly blessed to have crossed paths with you and for you to adopt me as your nephew. We laughed, talked, cried and traveled together. The Three Stooges are now down to Two. I made a promise to you and I will keep it. I still often find myself wondering what is Uncle Mike doing, or saying to myself let me call Uncle Mike to see how his day is going. I miss your smile and your laugh and our talks. I love you so much and miss you too. Until we meet again.....
Love your nephew,
Ty

“ Rev.Washington, I met you as a stranger and you became a friend. I will see you again someday in that land where friendship never ends. You were there for me when I was at my lowest and you told me to trust God in all things. All is well Pastor, All is well.

“ We the Johnson family we like to send our deepest sympathy to the family. We remember Rev. Washington as a fun and loving man. We thank God for putting him in our path. We will miss his cute smile and loving heart. We sometimes called him uncle and we will never met another person like him. We would gathering at functions and we always had fun with you coming to our homes and having a good time. You will be sadly missed by us. We know you are in God's arms and he is holding you tight. We love you and God loves you.

“ I am especially honored to have had this wonderful friend. Our almost 15 years as "besties" contain so many volumes of memories that it is hard to pull just one page. Everywhere I look I am reminded of things we did, talked about, laughed about and even disagreed on. If nothing else, I pray we have demonstrated the true, real, sincere meaning of friendship to the world around us. Your Brother, Ronniere

“ May your spirit soar in freedom
From the fears that gripped so tight.
May you find the peace your searched for
As you wandered, lost, in the night.

May your tortured mind be clear and calm
And your tender heart be warm.
May you have no need for strength now.
May there ne'er be another storm.

May the music of the angels
Be the sweet sounds that you hear.
As you're rocked in Heaven's cradle
May you ne'er shed another tear.

I'll wear your memory proudly,
My brother...my friend.
May my brotherly love for you reach Heaven above
Until we meet again.
