

Mildred Jones (Carrington)

July 3, 1928 - November 29, 2017

Mildred Carrington Jones was born July 4, 1928 in Warrenton, NC. She was the ninth of twelve children (4 boys, 8 girls) to the late Charlie, Sr. and Lucy Carrington. She attended school in North Carolina. She married Elmo Lewis, Jr. and from this union one child was born, Brenda.

Once an older sibling migrated to New York seeking better opportunities, Mildred and the other siblings followed. They were always a close-knit family and this was another way they looked out for each other. Mildred was a hard worker all her life, beginning at the age of five, by picking cotton. She was employed at Mechanical Mirror along with her siblings. She retired from Rockland Psychiatric Hospital after 23 years of service as a Nurse's Aide. After retirement, she moved to Delaware to be with her daughter and grandchildren.

Mildred was an outgoing, humorous, friendly and generous person. She was admired and respected by her co-workers, friends and relatives. She was straight forward, open and honest in voicing her thoughts. She was a strong, resilient woman, until the Lord called her home. She fought the good fight of faith. She has left a legacy of love, strength and faith in God.

Mildred loved staying connected with her family. She was a devoted, protective and over generous mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great grandmother and mother-in-law.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by four brothers, Charlie, Jr., Joseph, Andrew and Lawrence; and six sisters, Courtney, Hadasie, Gertrude, Carrie Lee, Pearl and Cassie. She leaves to carry on the great legacy of her life, one sister, Delores of New York; one daughter Brenda (Donald); one granddaughter Yulonda; one grandson, Robert; four great-grandchildren, Enjoli, Jazmine, Jarel and Tenika; four great-great grands, Elijah, Jazlyn, Keith, Jr., and Elia; as well a host of many nieces, nephews, step sisters and many friends to help celebrate and cherish her memories and that great smile.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
