

Mildred Harris

June 26, 1914 - April 22, 2014

Mildred Mary Anna Sisco Harris was born in Rock Hall, Maryland on June 26, 1914 to the late Catherine and Clarence Sisco. She departed this life on April 22, 2014 at the University of Maryland Shore Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Chestertown, Maryland.

She was the first of six children, four of whom preceded her in death: Charles Sisco, Erma Brown, Sylvester Sisco and Catherine Jarrett.

She attended school in Rock Hall, Maryland on May 26, 1932. She was married to James Oliver Harris and from this union four children were born: James Benjamin Harris, Barbara Ann Harris Roberts, Robert Lewis, Tyrone Harris and Curtis Levone Harris.

She worked as a beautician, a seafood worker and also in food service at Kent and Queen Annes' Hospital. Her hobbies were singing, cooking, crocheting, knitting, growing flowers and raising pets.

She joined Aaron Chapel United Methodist Church at an early age, until her illness in 2000. She sang in the choir and also sang in concert in Baltimore, Maryland. She belonged to the Lady's Christian Society, the United Methodist Women and the Hospital Auxiliary.

Aunt Ringer, as she was so affectionately addressed, was a fun person who loved life and people. She enjoyed entertaining at her home often and socializing in general. She was very passionate about her family, her children, her nieces and nephews. She also loved her sister-in-law, Etta Hopkins. She leaves to cherish her memories her daughter, Barbara Ann Roberts

(Leon); her son, Curtis Levone Harris (Anna) of Rock Hall, MD; her daughter-in-law, Joyce Harris; sisters, Clara Scott and Ernestine Sisco both of Rock Hall, MD; 10 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; 10 great-great grandchildren; very special friend Mary Owens, and many nieces, nephews as well as a host of friends.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”
