

Mildred Harris

June 9, 1947 - October 13, 2017

Mildred Ann Harris, 70, of Magnolia, Delaware departed this life on October 13, 2017, at Bay Health Kent General, after a short illness. Mildred was born on June 9, 1947, in Woodside, Delaware, to the late Horace Tribbett and Catherine Jackson-Tribbett.

Mildred received her education at William Henry High School in Dover, Delaware. Mildred married William James Harris, Jr. on September 11, 1965, and they were blessed with three loving children, Gladys, Billy and Tony.

Mickey, as many knew and called her, enjoyed crossword puzzles, crocheting, and playing cards with family and friends. She was a loving and caring person who made sure to call everyone on their birthdays, early in the morning. Mickey was a happy and outgoing person. She lived life to the fullest and made friends no matter where she went.

Mickey was employed with General Foods for 17yrs. After leaving General Foods, she worked at Playtex and at Wal-Mart in the produce department, until her death.

Mickey is preceded in death by her parents, Horace Tribbett and Catherine Jackson-Tribbett; three sisters, Anna Mae Scarborough, Corrine P. Fisher and Lillian Quail; one brother, Lawrence Harris, Jr.

Mickey leaves to cherish her precious memory, her husband, William Harris, Jr.; three children, Gladys Harris of Colorado, William Harris (wife Kathryn) of Georgia, and Tony Harris of Colorado; two brothers, John Tribbett and Russell Tribbett of Dover; four sisters, Ruth Burris of Magnolia, Frances Lamb and Maude Young of Dover, and Louise Dickerson of Camden, NJ.; eight grandchildren, David Laroane Carl Harris (wife Toylene), Anastasie Amada Marie Moise, Christopher James Harris, Zachary Taylor Harris, Tiara Harris, Tarell Harris, Ahnjay Willson and Jaikob Cucuzza; three great-grandchildren, Kieare Sha'Deon Combs, Lakiagh Tahir Shamar Harris, Kieahna Lové Lelia Harris and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and extended family.

“ To the family of Mrs. Mildred Harris, I am very sorry for your loss. In the course of life as we loss those we love, we may wonder where did the time go. Time has much to do with living and moving on in our lives. But it is the quality of love that is dear to us now, the love that we have share along with the times we have shared not the amount of time. Love the prefect bond of union. Col3:12-14

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."49

“ Very sorry for your loss, Mickey had and infectious smile and an ornery giggle, you could always count on that. I've known Cousin Mickey for al long time and always looked forward to see her bright friendly smile. R.I.P my friend, please watch over and protect the ones you've left behind. I will always smile when I think of you. until we meet again. Your friend Dan

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my thoughts and prayers and once more I am deeply sorry for your family loss.
