

Mildred Louise Wright

October 22, 1929 - January 12, 2021

Mildred Louise Wright, daughter of the late Mollie Laster and James Wright, was born on October 22, 1929, in Rock Hall, Maryland. She departed this life on January 12, 2021, at the University of Maryland Shore Medical Center, in Chestertown, Maryland.

Mildred attended Sharptown Elementary School in Rock Hall, Maryland, and attended Garnet High School in Chestertown. Mildred worked at Campbell Soup for 31 years, and retired in 1991. After retirement she lovingly took care of some of her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mildred belonged to Emmanuel United Methodist Church, where she was a member of the United Methodist Women. She could not wait for Sunday's to come and would say, "Today is Church day", with a smile. She also loved to listen to Gospel music, watching the soaps Young & Restless and The Bold and Beautiful. She loved watching them with her daughter Christine. She would say "These old stories is a mess".

Mildred was affectionally known as "Mom", "Mom-Mom", "Sis", "Mimi", "Nana", "Aunt Sis", "Miss Sis" and "Miss Mill".

Mildred loved to be around family, mainly the grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mildred was preceded in death by her siblings, Marie, Russell, Melvin, Novel & Elizie.

Mildred leaves to cherish her memory, two daughters, Christine Harris of Chestertown, MD, Linda Taylor (Ronald) of Atlanta, GA; one son, Wayne Wickes of Atlanta, GA; one stepson, Ernest Wickes (Rosemary) of Rock Hall, MD; ten grandchildren, Cheryl, Dee-Dee, Mi-laysia, Zi'Ere, Quamei, Ly'trel, Lamont, Toni, Kee and Tyaire; twelve great-grandchildren; special friends, Josephine Phillips and Marie Butler; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
