

Millie "Daise" Williams

June 2, 1958 - December 28, 2024

Millie's Life and Legacy

Millie "Daise" Williams, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, peacefully departed this life on December 28, 2024 in the comfort of her home surrounded by family. Daise was born June 2, 1952 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Millie Osborne-Alston and David Campbell.

She received an education at James M. Bennett High School. Daise was employed at Tysons and later transferred to Perdue Farms as a line production worker for seventeen years. She went on to retire in 2019. Following her retirement, she became a devoted member of the Emmanuel Covenant Church.

Affectionately known as "Daise", she was a devoted mother and grandmother. She valued spending time with loved ones. She dedicated her life to her family, always there with a listening ear, a kind heart, and providing unconditional love and support. She was the anchor of our family and someone upon whom we could all depend. She was always there to offer a helping hand in times of need, no matter how big or small. She was a selfless woman who put the needs of others before her own.

The simplest pleasures in life brought great joy to her. She loved cooking, attending family gatherings, listening to old-school music, dancing, and online shopping. She enjoyed quiet evenings at home watching her favorite TV shows. Her home was her safe haven and happy place where she found comfort and peace.

Her pleasant personality was contagious to everyone she met. She was a quiet soul, with a strong presence. Daise will forever be remembered for her infectious smile, "Cherry Jubilee" lipstick, the popping of her chewing gum, and her food that fed the soul. She will forever be our "favorite girl."

Daise is survived by: her children, Deborah Campbell, Valencia Williams, Antione Campbell and Tiffany Campbell; ten grandchildren and a great granddaughter; sisters, Carrie Campbell, Loretta Ortiz and Patricia Campbell; her dearest friend, Renee Wongus and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Millie Osborne-Alston, her father, David Campbell and step-father, Ricardo Alston.

She will be deeply missed by her friends, family, and all who knew her.

Lovingly Submitted ~ The Family
