MO'RIAH'S STORY

Mo'riah Marie Greene entered this world as a celebrity. She was born at Peninsula Regional Hospital in Salisbury Maryland on October 10, 2010. The news stations were there because her birthdate was 10-10-10. Instantly, she became famous after opening her eyes to lights, cameras and action.

On Tuesday, April 5, 2022, Mo'riah got up, got dressed and went to school. A normal day for her or any 11-year-old child. She had a seizure at East Salisbury Elementary School where she attended as a 4th grade student. The ambulance rushed her to Tidal Health Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland. Then she was transported by helicopter to Children's National Hospital in Washington, DC. Only God knew this was the ending and beginning of Mo'riah's young life. He called her home on Friday, April 8, 2022.

In school, her best friends were Zoe Cherry and Eddie Almonte, Jr. Mo'riah enjoyed being the boss of her younger brother, Kyree and she had a special bond with her older brother, Tracy. She was an aspiring fashion designer and artist of all things Barbie. Every summer, she was excited to participate in Vacation Bible School. She and her brother, Kyree loved to attend. They could not wait until Friday to show Eon (bonus dad) and mom what they had learned all week.

Precious memories of Mo'riah's life will be cherished by: her parents, Monique (Eon) Jones and Tracey McKinney; her brothers, Tracey and Kyree Greene and twins La'kai and La'Cari McKinney and Ezra Victor; sister TaKahla Murphy; grandparents, Diane (Marshall) Sanchez, Tammy (James) Mann, Walter White, Tracey McKinney, Sr. and Tracy Buren; great-grandparents, Mary Winder, Samuel, Sr. (Sandra) Cook, Patsy (Demetrius) Miles and Romanda McKinney. Mo'riah also leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family friends, teachers and classmates, who truly loved and will miss her dearly.
