On Friday, December 4, 2015, Montro E. Cornish departed this life at his home. Born on October 21, 1960 in Cambridge, Maryland, he was the son of the late Andrew William Cornish II and Barbara A. Cornish.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please take comfort in knowing that very soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out (John 5:28,29). Until that blessed day, may many fond memories of Montro warm your hearts.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Montro's passing. Every life is so precious to our heavenly father that Jesus said at Matthew 10:30 that "even the very hairs of your head are numbered." That's why we can further trust promises found in the scripture on the resurrection hope at John 5:28-29. Revelation 21:3-4 offers a time free from sorrow and pain. Take comfort knowing that Montros has a beautiful hope.

“ Uncle Montro was one of the funniest people I've ever met in my life, it's almost impossible to be depressed, sad or upset around him. I love him for his sense of humor and his willingness to share that humor with the rest of the world. Uncle Tro your memory and legacy of LAUGHTER will carry on in our hearts forever.

THE WORLD WILL FOREVER MISS YOUR LIGHT, SENSITIVE AND CARING HEART.
