“ To the Family, I’m so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: ‘I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’ Then he continued: ‘He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.’ I know that those words mean that those retained in God’s memory and will return in the resurrection. “ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God’s promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God “will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We would like to share a most encouraging promise from a holy book, the Bible. It tells us that one day all those who have died will be brought back to life to enjoy life as God purposed it to be in the beginning (Genesis 1:27,28). Some of the following referenced scriptures convey this promise to us (Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:10,11; Revelation 21:4). Please take the opportunity to look up and meditate on these verses in your own copy of the Bible. May the 'God of all comfort' be with you as you cope with the loss of your loved one (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
