“I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection(Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“I am writing to express my sympathy on the loss of your loved one. I am sure they will be greatly missed indeed. Very soon sickness and death will be a thing of the pass. Isaiah 33:24 assures us , "And no resident will say, "I am sick." This is a promise that God holds out for us and will be fulfilled by means of his Kingdom in which we pray for in the Lord's Prayer as found at Matthew 6:9,10. Once more I am so sorry for your loss.
