

Myrtle Jenkins

September 17, 1948 - August 26, 2014

Myrtle L. Jenkins, age 65, daughter of the late Charles Jenkins and the late Ida Mae Jenkins, was born on September 17, 1948 in Seaford, DE. She was one of six siblings born to this union.

She received her formal education from the William C. Jason High School in Georgetown, DE.

She worked for Stockley Center for 33 years, until her retirement; however, being the hard worker that she was known for, she returned to work for Delmarva Community Services for eight years. Also, she was a foster mother for many children. At an early age, Myrtle joined the Clarence Street Church of God in Seaford, DE, where she was a faithful member.

In her spare time, she enjoyed doing yard work, collecting magnets, figurines, shopping, gospel singing, church activities and traveling, but most of all being “bossy.”

She leaves a legacy to her two sons, Demetris Jenkins of New Castle, DE and Nas’Zail Jenkins of Seaford, DE; one daughter, Kayotta West (Tywand West) of Seaford, DE; one brother, Linwood (Francine) Jenkins of Seaford, DE; two sisters, Frankie (Tyrone) Griffin of Dover, DE and Beatrice (Stanley) Jones of Greenwood, DE; seven grandchildren: Javon, Tywand, Kaylah, Demetrius Jenkins, Jr., Tywana West Horsey Lanijah Sturgis and Jamarius Roberts and one great-grandchild, Kayden Henson; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers, Robert Lee and Charles Jenkins, Jr.
