

Myrtle Margie Martin

April 17, 1942 - April 14, 2019

Obituary

Myrtle Margie Martin was born on April 17, 1942 to the late Elton Coston, Sr. and Wilsie Coston. She departed this life on Sunday, April 14, 2019. One of four (4) children, she was born in Pocomoke, MD and educated in Worcester County public schools.

She was married to the late Willie Martin, Jr. on October 6, 1967 and from this union came one daughter, Dedra.

Her years of work were spent working at Campbell Soup Company, and then for many years, at Snow Hill and Powellville Sewing Factory. She then later retired from Candy Kitchen in Ocean City, Maryland, where she was a chocolate maker. Her nickname was "Sis" to many family members.

She was a faithful member of Mount Wesley United Methodist Church, where she served on Pastor Parish Relations Committee, member of United Methodist women, Communion Steward, Lay Speaker, and choir member of Wesley Gospel Singers and the Spiritualettes. She started the children's choir, "The Primaries and Juniors" and made robes and stoles for all thirty (30) members.

Myrtle made sure the children and youth were active in participating in services, learning speeches, attending Bible study and youth conventions, taking yearly bus trips to amusement parks and going on outings. She loved the Lord with her whole heart and she loved to serve. She was a prophetic voice that will be missed.

Myrtle is survived by her daughter, Dedra Martin, one God-daughter, Faith Martin, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Myrtle was preceded in death by her husband, Willie Martin, Jr., her parents, Elton Coston, Sr. and Wilsie Coston, her sister, Dorothy Blake, her brothers, Elton Coston, Jr. and Randolph Coston, and one niece, Annette Coston.

“ I am truly sorry about your loss it's hard when we lose a loved one. However, I wanted to let you know that we can be comforted by a future hope. Soon there will be no more pain or sorrow. All the former things have passed away. (Rev 21:3,4)

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Times like this are so difficult to deal with as we mourn those we love. May you find some comfort in the promises Almighty God gives us in His Word, the Bible (Hebrews 4:12). One outstanding promise He gives is that one day his only-begotten son, Jesus Christ has been given the power and authority to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Jesus showed he could and would do this when on earth he raised a dear friend from death (John 11:43, 44). Death is an enemy even to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He is going to have it removed forever along with other things that cause mankind pain and suffering (Revelation 21:3, 4). Keep that real hope alive and it will strengthen you in the days ahead! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Dee Dee, I know that today your heart is heavy, sad, and you're feeling lonely. Your personal relationship with Jesus will strengthen you to get through this most difficult time. Words can't express the magnitude of how much we share your loss. Keep looking to Jesus the author and finisher of your faith. A family who prays together stays together, we're here for you and with you! Our love and deepest sympathy Terry & Carmela
