

Nanci Abarca

October 25, 1979 - October 4, 2021

Nanci Abarca, peacefully passed from this life the morning of October, 4, 2021. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family in her last moments of life. Nanci was born in Los Angeles, California on the 25th of October, 1979. Her family moved to Seaford, Delaware in 1992, where her life began.

Following are memories of her parents, siblings, children and husband:

Parents: Our daughter was calm, respectful and a sweet little girl. She was always grateful for everything we bought for her.

Andres Junior (Brother): When my sister, Nanci was ironing her clothes, I was messing around with her and she told me to stop, and I kept messing with her. She got mad and she burned me on my stomach, with the iron.

Nidia Abarca (Sister): She was my other half. When I went out with my boyfriend, she always came along.

Juan Abarca (Brother): She took care of my brother and I when we were younger. Before we were allowed to go outside to play, she made us clean and even after that, she still didn't let us go outside.

Daniel Abarca (Brother): I always had fun with my sister; from parties when we were younger. She got mad and bit me. Sister....I will forever have the scar! lol.

Francisco Gomez (Esposo): El dia mas feliz de mi vida fue cuando conoci a mi Esposa Nanci!! Y Yo le decia "Dime que me amas" "Tu Sabes" Ella decia "Pero no te lo voy a decir dara que no te alses oh te sientas importante" Jajajaja Y se reia como para que yo me sintiera mal pero jubando conmigo y me decia" Te enojastes porque si no lla sabes".

Kimberly: My mom was an amazing mom, wife, daughter, friend. Her beautiful soul will always be remembered. May my beautiful mom rest in peace with our other angels.

Delilah: My favorite memory is when we went to the nail salon when she got her eyebrows done and I got my nails done. All the laughter we went through.

Katelyn: I don't even know where to start right now, but my mom was a beautiful, gorgeous and intelligent woman. We would always play fight but she was the smartest and best mom. You will never be forgotten.

Jonathan: I miss you, mom. All the fun we had from camping, fishing, crabbing, to swimming and all the birthday parties you made for all of us. I love you, mom.

Anahi: I like how she always bought me shoes and toys. I love you a lot, mom.

Nicolas: She is a loving mother and always did everything she could for us and we are going to miss her so much. Now she doesn't have to stress about everything and is worry-free.

Kevin: I have so many memories with my mom. I wouldn't know where to begin. You were my best friend, someone I could always talk to, about anything. You will forever be in our hearts, Mom. I love you so much.
