“ I didn't know Nancy, but I knew her mother, "Aunt Lena". She showed me a way to crochet an afghan while travelling in the car. I had been knitting but every time we hit a bump I would lose stitches. Lena was so sweet and I am sure Nancy took after her. Our hearts and prayers go out to Sherrye and all the family during this most difficult time. I Thess. 4. 13- 18

“ Sherrye - I am so sorry to read of Nancy\u2019s death and know you are devastated. I was in the Conrad class of 1960 and have known her for years. I saw her in Louisa\u2019s wedding so long ago. When you were little, your parents bought a bedroom set from me for your bedroom. I was happy that the buyers were Nancy\u2019s family. I hope family and friends will be supportive as you grieve. Warmly, Ginny Quigley Craig
