“ I am truly sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. There are many words of comfort I would like to say; however, it has often been found that the best source of comfort is found in God's word. God is aware of your pain. "He is healing the broken hearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots." Psalms 147:3 Death was never meant to be (Genesis 2:17). Therefore, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8 May the hope of being reunited with your deceased loved one bring you a measure of comfort and joy.

“ Dear Family, I offer my deep condolences for your loss. As you reflect on the beautiful memories that Nancy left to treasure, may they ease your hearts in the difficult days ahead. May God soothe your hearts with his loving promise to reunite you together again in the future Paradise. He knows the many tears that you cry. You're in my prayers. (Acts 24:15)

“ I would like to offer your family my sincere condolences for the passing of your loved one. God loves us so much that HE created us with the desire to live forever, not to die.-Ecclesiastes 3:11. Death was never a part of God's plans for us, it was the penalty for disobedience.-Genesis 2:16,17. God will soon grant Jesus Christ, the power of His holy spirit, to raise those who have fallen asleep in death, back to life with the prospect for eternal life on the paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Just imagine when your sorrow will be turned into joy on being reunited with your loved one.-John 11:11-44.
