“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. In looking at the other expressions on this site of those who care for you, it is so nice to see the support and encouragement that family and friends can provide at such a difficult time. Let me share another Bible-based thought with you that I do hope gives you comfort at this time. Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died so they can enjoy life as Almighty God meant it to be (John 5:28, 29). God's Word makes it very clear that death is not only an enemy to mankind, but also an enemy to Him (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He promises to rid mankind forever of the pain, suffering, and death we now experience (Revelation 21:3-5). God cannot lie (Titus 1:2), so we can trust that there is a marvelous future ahead for mankind where life will truly be worth living. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
