

Naomie Vincent

June 26, 1961 - December 7, 2016

Naomie Vincent was born on June 26, 1961 in Gonaive, Haiti to the late Maguerite Honorie. The Lord called her into His presence on December 7, 2016, after being diagnosed with lupus. She put up a good fight, for five years, for the sake of her family.

Naomie received her education in Haiti. While living in New Jersey, she received her CNA. After moving to Florida, she was employed with Marriott Hotels for four years. We must say, she was a strong, hardworking, single mother, who worked a full time, and a part time job, to support her family, while raising three children, after the loss of her husband. She enjoyed helping people and always welcomed everyone she met with open arms.

She received Christ in her life as a young adult. Naomie was a loving mother and a supportive lady who rejoiced being in the presence of the Lord. She enjoyed listening to and singing gospel music throughout the day. Cooking for her family gave her great joy. She also taught her oldest son, Nozama, how to cook some of her special meals. As a result, he loves to cook as well.

Naomie leaves to cherish her everlasting memories: two sons, Nozama and Celandieu Vincent, both of Salisbury, MD; one daughter, Tabitha Vincent of Salisbury, MD and three sisters, Wisleine Antoine, Marie-Carme Antoine and Yonette Antoine. Naomie was a loving aunt to Markenson Pierre, Ketely

Antoine, Levia Jean Philippe, Lovelie Jean Philippe and Wideline Saint Jules.

We are all heartbroken for an angel who was here with us on earth and now has returned back to the Father. We shall continue to give the highest glory on her behalf.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.
