He leaves to cherish his memory fiancée, Charlotte; one son, Shawn; two brothers, Thomas and Larry (Diane); one sister, Cynthia (Kenneth); three grandchildren; one aunt, Agnes Hutchins; two uncles, William Mosley (Christine) and Leroy Mosley; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I am truly sorry to hear about the loss of your dearly beloved one. There are many words of comfort I would like to say; however, it has often been found that the best source of comfort is found in God's word. God is aware of your pain. "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots." Psalms 147:3 Death was never meant to be. Genesis 2:17 Therefore, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8 May the hope of being reunited with your deceased loved one bring you a measure of comfort and joy.
