

Nora L. Johnson

August 30, 1918 - January 8, 2013

Nora L. Newman Johnson, daughter of the late Robert and Elizabeth Cotton Newman, was born August 30, 1918 departed this life on January 8, 2013. She was the wife of the late Robert Andrew Johnson, Sr. and from this union came four sons and two daughters.

Nora was educated in the Kent County Public School System. She did domestic work and later was employed at Vita Food. She later became a homemaker. She was a member of United Church of Deliverance for a number of years under the leadership of Bishop George E. Blake and Pastor Lillian Blake. She later became a member of Full Gospel Church of Deliverance under the leadership of Pastor William Newman in Townsend, DE.

Nora loved the Lord and enjoyed praising God. She also loved gospel music. Two of her favorite hymns were "Sending Up My Timber" and "This Old Building." Nora was a loving and devoted mother and grandmother who loved her family. Nora was always willing to lend a listening ear to brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews and offer encouragement to anyone who needed it.

Some of the things she enjoyed doing were baking fresh homemade rolls and white potato pies, preserving fruits and canning vegetables. She loved working in her flower garden, sewing and quilting. She had a special saying,

“There’s no place like home.”

Nora was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Robert Andrew Johnson, Sr.; five brothers and two sisters.

Nora leaves to mourn and cherish her memories four sons, William Newman (Gwen) of Chestertown, Robert A. Johnson, Jr. (Iris) of Chestertown, Howard Johnson (Hilda) of Newark, DE and Eugene R. Johnson (Linda) of Chestertown; two daughters, Sarah Wallace (Larry) of Lincoln University, PA and Patricia King (Maurice) of Chestertown; a special niece, Elease Moss of Chestertown, MD. She also leaves to cherish her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Tribute Wall

BP

“ dear family of Nora please accept my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your loved one, may God (Psalms 83;28)
grant you peace Rev 21 3-4

b pettus - January 29, 2013 at 12:00 AM