“ Shirley,I just learned yesterday that Norman had passed. It really made me stop and reflect on the time I had in your lives. There were some of the best years I ever had. You and Norman were like a set of second parents to me. I enjoyed being around him so much. I regret not visiting you both over the years. I loved you both. Please find peace in the memories of the life you shared. May god bless.Ben

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. We are near the time when God will take action to restore peace and everlasting life to obedient humankind. God promises: I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief. Jeremiah 31:13-17. The Bible, gives us true hope for the dead and consolation for the living. Acts 24:15; Revelation 20:12-14; 21:1-4. Ms Woodson
