

Norman Reid Scott

December 1, 1938 - August 1, 2019

Norman R. Scott, affectionately known as “Butch”, a resident of Salisbury Maryland, formerly of Brooklyn, New York, returned to his Lord and Savior on Thursday, August 1, 2019. Born on April 1, 1939, he was the son of the late Robert and Ethel Scott.

He worked at Rolls Offset Printing Company in Teterboro, New Jersey for many years until retirement. On November 21, 1959, he married the former Marsha Clemont. They enjoyed forty-two (42) years of marital bliss until her passing on March 31, 2001.

His charismatic personality touched many lives. He loved jazz, playing chess, gardening and sports. His favorite team was the New York Knicks. Norman enjoyed spending time with his family. He loved Italian, soul food and his favorite dessert was sweet potato pie.

To know Butch was to love him. He was a very quiet, patient, peace-loving and kind man to everyone he met. Everyday, he read the Daily Word and lived his life accordingly.

He leaves unforgettable, precious memories with: his son, David Scott (Kim); his brother, David W. Scott (Yvonne); granddaughter, Bryah Armstrong; great grandchildren, Zoe and Gary and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to his parents, Robert and Ethel Scott, he was preceded in death by his brother, Donald Scott and his loving wife, Marsha Scott.

Sorrowfully Submitted ~ The Family

Tribute Wall

“ GodBrother, My thoughts and prayers are with you as you lay your father to rest. Wishing you peace, comfort and loving memories in the days ahead. ”

Love, Terri - August 07, 2019 at 07:54 PM