“ >Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. Take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be resurrected or raised up back to life in conditions free from sickness and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4). These are few of many comforting scriptures.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I only knew Nyema for a little over a year. She was my coupon partner here in Jackson. I am still praying for all of her family and especially her children. She was an amazing Woman and Mother.

“ I am truly sorry to read of the passing of your loved one, Nyema. She will be greatly missed. It may comfort you to know that God's Word the Bible holds out a sure hope of seeing her again, vibrant and healthy as before, right here on earth under Paradisiac conditions. This hope is found at John 5:28,29. This hope will surely be made a reality by means of God's Kingdom in which we pray for in the Lord's Prayer. Once more I am very sorry for your loss.

“ I can not adequately express how sorry I am about the death of Ms. Jackson. I did not know her but I am a mother of children about the same age. It is heart wrenching to me so I know her loss must be to the family and friends. May God give you the peace and understanding that you need!
