

Odell Hamlin

December 4, 1955 - September 24, 2017

Odell Hamlin was born on December 4, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland to Ozella Underdue and Joe Henry Hamlin. He was raised, loved and cherished by his Mom and Dad, Arthur and Margaret Wallace of Chance, Maryland.

After graduation from Washington High School, Odell held several jobs over his life time to include V.V Hughs & Co. and Perdue Farms. He took pride in being a "Country Boy", loving and playing with every thing outdoors, most notably crabbing and fishing. No one was more a Baltimore Ravens fan than him. Through out his many trials in illness, he fully acknowledged his faith in Christ as his personal Savior. He had a great appreciation of the competent care given by the Fire Department and all the staff at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, MD.

Odell was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters, Selena Davis and Barbara Gough and two brothers, Overlee Wallace and Olen Vincent.

He is survived by: nine siblings, Minnie Hamlin, James Vincent (Earlene), Parthenia Rhodes, Catherine Williams, Leon Vincent (Inell), Willie Mae Childress, Joyce Hamlin, Greg Hamlin (Linda) and Fred Elliott, along with a host of aunts, nieces, nephews and friends.

Special Tribute to Odell

Come To Me

God saw you were getting tired,
And only the best cure was to be;
So He put His loving arms around you,
And whispered, "Take Thy Rest and Be At Peace."
With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest;
God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28,29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolences; but that you please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
