“ It is truly sad to lose a classmate in death. Odessa and I went to school at Maces Lane High School. We were in the same homeroom. Please accept my deepest sympathy during your time of grief and please look forward to the time when you will have a chance to be reunited with her again. John 5:28&29 gives us hope of the resurrection. Also, Revelation 21:3&4 tells us that Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. So please take comfort in the scriptures during your time of grief and may your entire family be strengthened and blessed during this difficult time.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”
