“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. \r\n\r\nAs recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).\r\n\r\nMy wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.\r\n

“ “GOD'S HEAVENLY GARDEN”
Sometimes God picks the flower that is still in full bloom; Sometimes the rosebud's chosen that we feel He's picked too soon. Sometimes the flower is fading with petals floating down, But God knows the perfect time to gather flowers from the ground. There is a Heavenly garden
In which God takes great pleasure, Because He's placed within it, The Loved ones that we treasure. He walks among the blossoms
Giving them ETERNAL REST, And I know that it must please Him
Because He chose our very best. (Poem written by Dorothea K Barwick) “Uncle Oliver” as I always called him was a joy to know. He always kept the same smile, and kind words wherever he would see you. I never heard him complain, no matter what was happening. So much encouragement to everyone.
He will be missed by everyone, but God Loves Him even more.
Cherish the Memories
“Those Who Die In Christ Never Say Goodbye, but, See You Later!
(Revelation 21 : 4) And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.
With Prayers! ”

“ Dear Family :
"Earth hath no sorrows that Heaven cannot heal.
As I softly repeat it, great comfort I feel. And I long to reach out to those in the storm of sorrow's dark night and point to the morn, When joy will abound up there in the skies, As God gently wipes the tears from their eyes! Oh, then we'll see clearly the face we adore
And greet our dear loved ones who've gone on before. Gone every heartache that we may feel;
For "
Earth hath no sorrows
That Heaven cannot heal!" (poem by Hansche Mortenson) Oliver has left so many memories of his laughter, smile, joyful personality. Always cherish the fond memories of your loved one. Praying for each of you!
