“Funerals are for the leaving, to say your goodbye. I can say that Pam has to know how many lives she touched and how she was loved. In the brief moment I knew Pam, let's just say, she has left a lasting impression. I'm grateful to have known and shared laughs with her. She will be missed and my heart and prayers go out to all her loved ones and friends!!

“Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I find comforting Job 14:14,15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ You have my deepest sympathy for your loss. While you grieve the passing of your loved one, I hope you will find comfort in the promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15) when all those who are sleeping in death, will be raised up and restored back to eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43.
