“ I like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. It was never God's intent that death should rule over mankind. - Romans 5:12; 1Corinthians 15:26, 55; God will do away with death. But for now God has provided hope-as stated at John 5:28, 29. During this most painful time please find comfort from God's word.

“ To Family: Very few are ever prepared for the death of a loved one. Words cannot convey the feelings of pain and heartache that come from losing someone you love. I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that the giver of life Jehovah God knows how you feel. He has promised to restore life to those who have fallen asleep in death by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). May you find comfort in God's Word. For more information on the resurrection go to JW.ORG.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God's promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\u201c
