“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Very sad to hear of the passing of Patricia. I would often visit the Pizza Hut in Easton and when she was there we would always talk and I told her she made best Pizza in town and I would not go unless she was there. Very nice personality and always had something pleasant to say. I will truly miss her. Prayers for the Demby family that GOD will keep you under his shadow as you make this difficult journey

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. My heart goes out to the family at this most grievous time. No words can take away the pain and hurt of losing someone we love in death, but the bible gives us hope for the future. Acts 24:15 tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Also, in the near future death, tears, mourning and pain will be done away with.(Revelation 21:4) Please look forward to that time. Martha, I'm so sorry you loss your sister. I know what it feels like, because I recently loss two of mine. I look forward to the resurrection more now than I ever did before. I'm keeping the whole family in my prayers and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be. So, we send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about good news from Almighty God. We are in no way trying to impose our faith on you, but sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17). As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). Truly, what a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality though for God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). It is our hope that you not take our word for what has been written; but that you take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures and be comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

“ My condeslence to the Demby family. May you find comfort in reading God's Word the Bible at such a time as this. 2 Corinthians 1:3&4 helps us to see that God can comfort us through all our trials. May yr family use this time to reflect on the truth of that scripture and many other promises that the Bible holds out for our loved ones that are resting in sleep. John 5:28&29
