“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"

“ The death of a loved one is the most devastating experience a family can face. At times, the pain of the loss will seem unbearable. Please know that there are friends who care about you and your family during this difficult time and more importantly Psalm 34:18 tells us that \"God is near to those that are broken at heart. We pray that Jehovah the God of all comfort is with your family during this difficult time of grief. Questions will come up about why do we suffer and die? Our prayers are with you and your family.

“ Extending my prayers and Love to the family during your time of loss and Heavens gain. I have many warm memories of my friend and Sister Pat. Sharing laughs, bible study, prayer and church services, traveling together. Whenever we talked there was always a Joy and excitement in her voice that lit up the room. A kind and Gentle Woman of God. She is at rest and Peace. I pray Gods Peace and Comfort for the family. If I can be of any assistance during this time please call upon me. Be encouraged in the Lord he will never leave you nor forsake you.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one, Patricia. She will be missed. May “the God of peace,”(2Thessalonians 3:16) be with your family as you deal with her loss. May each passing day get a little easier as life returns to normal.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. \r\n\r\nAs recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).\r\n\r\nMy wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.\r\n
