“ Dear family, I express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one and I know it's so hard to bear. But know that your heavenly Father understands your pain and He cares. He extends a hope to each and everyone and that hope is that you will see your loved one again. John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 25:8a

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God's promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our sincerest condolences for the loss of your loved one. During difficult and sad times such as this, we can find much comfort in what Almighty God promises us in Revelation 21:3, 4 which says in part: "God....will wipe all tears from our eyes, and there will be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain." Almighty God no doubt feels our pain and suffering and promises to one day end all suffering (Psalm 37:9-11). Until that glorious time may the God of All Comfort comfort you during this heart-wrenching time (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Family, I want to give you all my sincere condolences. Your mother was very spiritual.... She knows she is going home to be with the Master. I began my journey with your mother as a mere co-worker.... God knows we had some trying times..... But we got through them and she became one of my closest and dearest confidants. She often referred to me as her Spiritual Daughter. I will truly miss her. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Annette

God promises: I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief. Jeremiah 31:13-17.
