

Patricia Kay Taylor

April 9, 1953 - May 21, 2022

Patricia Kay Taylor, born April 9, 1953, passed from her earthly life into the arms of her savior on May 21, 2022. She passed peacefully at Hospice at the Lake in Salisbury, Maryland. Surrounded by her loving family, after a long and courageous battle with multiple myeloma and amyloidosis of the kidneys for the last 6 year. No one fought harder or braver, with such determination, dignity, strength, and peace.

She is preceded in death by her parents Lloyd and Fanny Mae Lovett; her sisters Loretta "Sissy" Warren, and Marie Gragg; her husband of 40 years Keith Douglas Taylor; a son James Ian Taylor; and a granddaughter Katelyn Skye Brookman.

She leaves behind two brothers Earl Lovett, and James Lovett; two sons Steve and wife Gladys Brookman and Bryan and wife Tiffany Taylor; grandchildren, Jasmine and husband Nate, Sandra M., Tyler B, Kevin M., Gages., Jordan M., Joshua S., Leyla S., and Chelsea B., great grandchildren Marcus, Atreus, and a precious one on the way; her beloved cats Tom, Gerri, Princess and Little One, and many nieces and nephew. .

Many more called her mom, Momma T, Mom-mom, sister, aunt and friend. A woman of true character and Godly example of Love.

She had the most beautiful soul. Loving, caring, nurturing and trusted, constantly opening her heart and home to many. A hard worker, she worked at Edgehill/Rite Aid Pharmacy in Delmar, Delaware, Laurel Elementary school in the cafeteria for 20 years. And Walmart in Seaford, Delaware for 16 years.

She was incredibly loved by many and will be greatly missed.
